

Save space for more ‘patient-first’ care.

Whether you want to retrofit your OR or build a brand new one, talk to your equipment planners first about the groundbreaking (and ground-saving) in-wall console from Fujifilm Systems Integration.

Our large, minimally-cabled wall-inset monitor and control panel eliminate trip hazards for improved staff safety and enhanced workflow efficiency. What are the OR benefits of AV integration equipment outside the room?

- It eliminates dust and noise;
- Reduces air movement and contaminants;
- Frees up valuable real estate.
